

WA Mobile Food Vendors Association - Code of Conduct

The WA Mobile Food Vendors Association (WAMFVA) goal is to serve as a resource on food truck vending to the public, local government, and community organisations. We aim to promote community-oriented vending behavior to ensure food trucks are operating as good citizens, and to advocate on behalf of food trucks with local and state government for fair laws that reflect the changing realities of street vending.

The WAMFVA Code of Conduct is a living document intended to help the organization, and individual members, to satisfy the goals set forth by this group. Members of the WAMFVA agree to abide by this code and understand that violation of the code can result in suspension or termination of membership in the WAMFVA as stated in the WAMFVA By-Laws below.

Members will:

- Maintain the highest standards of business conduct by using only legal and ethical means in all business activity
- Support through their actions the goals of the Association in maintaining a healthy, thriving relationship with local government jurisdictions and communities by demonstrating the added value Mobile Food Vendors can bring to a neighborhood, and working to minimize any concerns that Food Vendors will negatively affect any constituents, event organisers and sponsors.
- Cooperate in every reasonable and proper way with other WAMFVA members and work with them toward the advancement of the Food Truck industry
- Be fair, equitable and respectful to employer(s), employees, associate, competitors, customers, the public, and all business or professional relationships
